About Richard Robbins

Richards Robbins is no stranger to the high-octane sales world. An epitome of a true success story, Robbins, born in a small rural town in Ontario (Canada), decided to break into real sales at the young age of 24.

RRI's unique methodology understands the importance of surpassing sales goals without compromising quality of life.

Driven by his thirst for learning and any challenge, Robbins opened his first real estate brokerage firm in Toronto four years later, in 1989, and at the start of a major real estate crash.

Within three years, Robbins ranked among top 1% of all Greater Toronto Area REALTORS® and his brokerage captured 12% market share. Also, with Robbins leadership and mentorship, his agents went on to achieve the “highest production per agent” of any brokerage within its trading area.

Discovering his talent for speaking and inspiring others to attain their own goals, Robbins decided to take his passion to the broader real estate and global business world through unique and engaging events. This led to the genesis of Richard Robbins International Inc., now Canada’s preeminent real estate coaching and sales training organization.

Now approaching its 20th year, RRI is poised to continue to motivate, inspire and encourage real estate professionals worldwide having reached over 300,000 audience members so far. audience members to date.
